Kelly High School

Through the Years . . .

. . .has brought joyous moments, past memories, and present realistic feelings to life. Thus the promise of yesterday's dream is fulfilled by the individual message each person brings to the world.

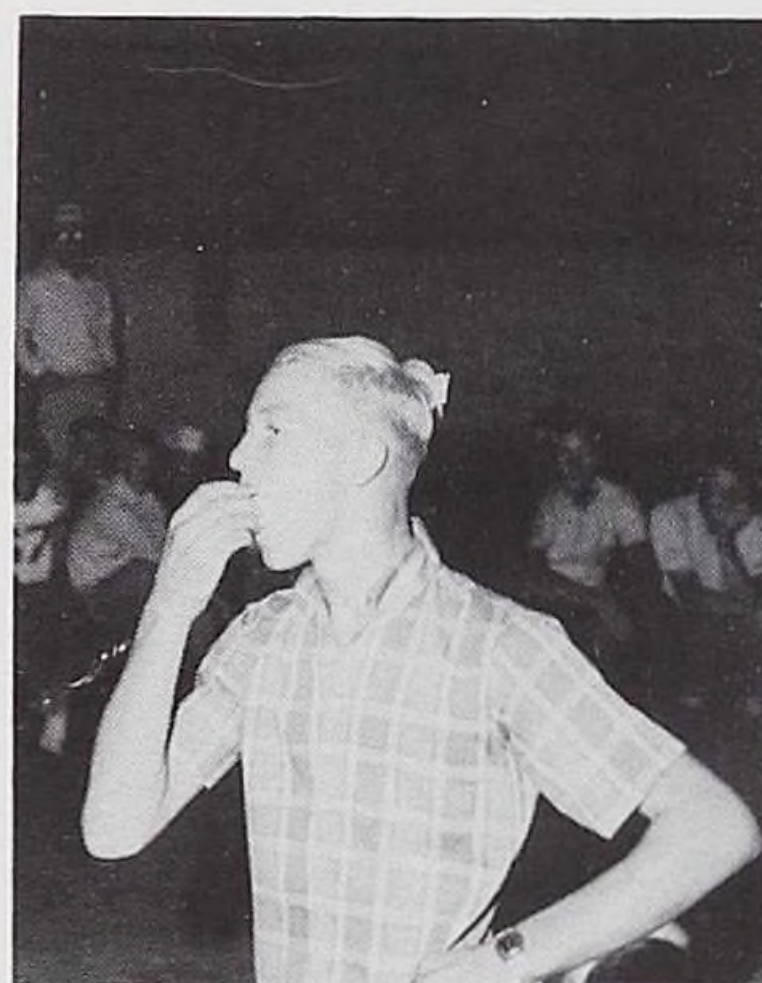

Kelly High opened its doors in 1934 to those who were eager to gain the knowledge it had to offer. And now in 1969 it closes these doors.

We, the students of Kelly High salute our upperclassmen who have gone before us. For we received a great tradition--the Kelly High Image. This image has gone through tremendous change since its initiation thirty-five years ago. Upon us falls the task of upholding this standard. Whatever we do --wherever we go in the future reflects this image.

The school year begins as all the students assembled outside for the flag raising.

Loyalty, Leadership and Pride Portray the Spirit of K.H.S.

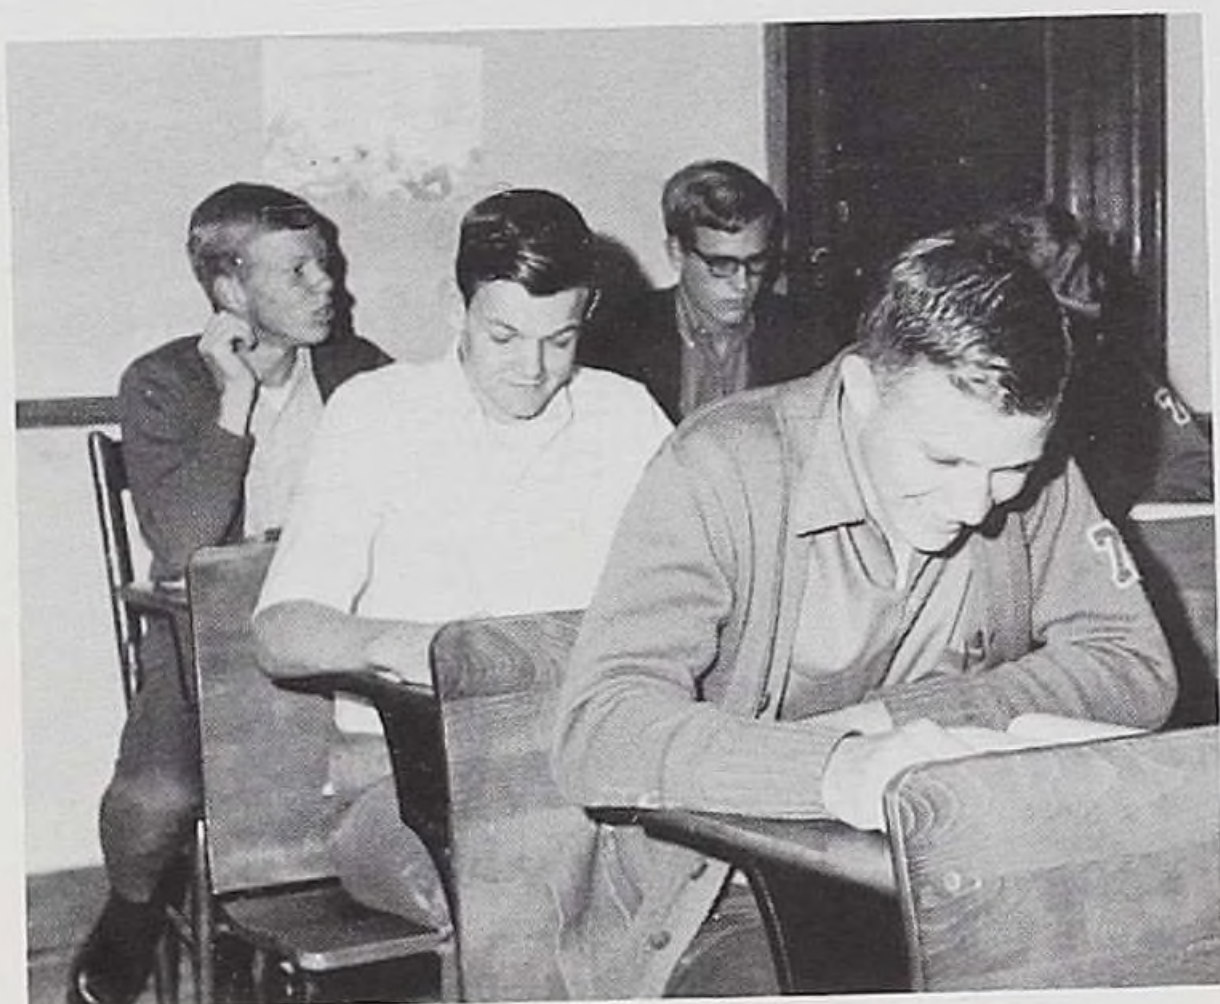

The cheerleaders were caught by the camera as they practiced their pompom routine.

Business Combined With Pleasure Makes a Happy Student

The '69 Seniors look to future.

The Kelly High School Chorus for 1969 was directed by Miss Emily Clarke.

Activities Are an Asset In Individual Development

Sister Bernice hands Judy Hermes her award for second place in the Knights of Columbus speech contest. Jane Hermes tied for first place.

Diane Schmelzle was 1969 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Also she was chosen as the good citizen by the DAR.

September marked the beginning of another school year at Kelly with five new faculty members. With these new teachers came new ideas and teaching methods. The Kelly students found classes and subjects more challenging than ever before. The second semester brought still another new teacher and the Sophomores took advantage of Drivers Training and the senior boys began shop.

The Service of Dedicated Individuals Makes School Life Pleasant

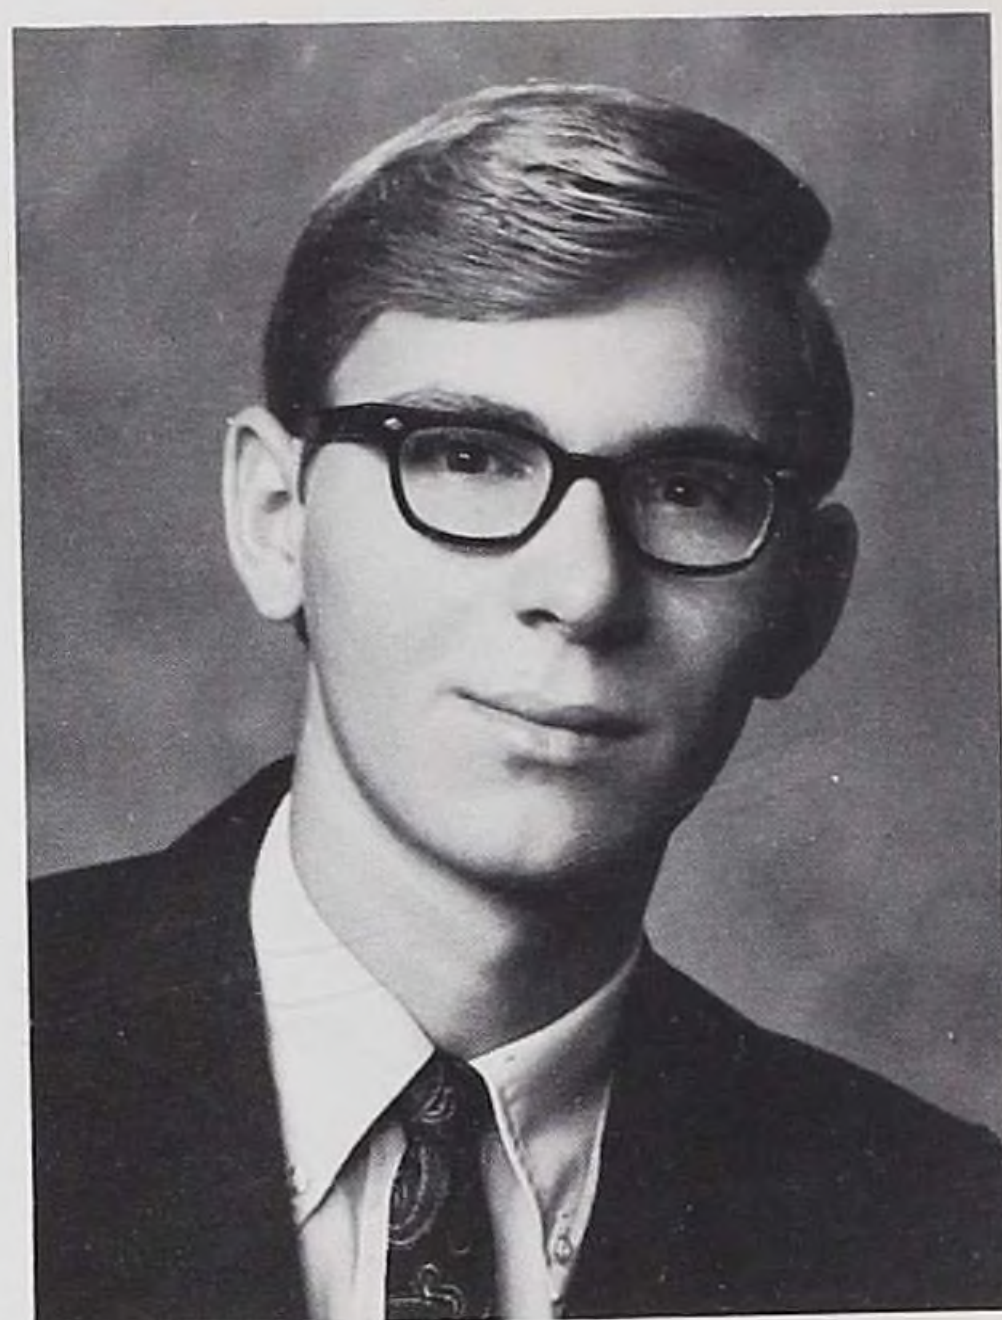

The people who faithfully serve the school children are Francis Stallbaumer, janitor. Our cooks are Raphaela Haverkamp, Hilda Levert and Margaret Enneking. Mrs. Siess, school nurse, keeps the children healthy. Mrs. Korte gives the teachers a helping hand as she performs her duties as secretary. The bus drivers who get the children to school every day are Roach Enneking, Virgil Altenhofen, Bud Ronnebaum and Henry Holthaus.
